Dissolve to: MS Attorney John Smoke talking to camera	Hi I'm John Smoke. You know, many people visit my office after having fired their old attorney. They felt abandoned--forced to talk to paralegals or secretaries. Sometimes never even having met their attorney until trial. Often they've realized that the lawyer has lied to them, or just doesn't have the experience to get the job done. Smoke Law Group has served this community for over 5 decades, from when my Dad, John Sr., first hung his shingle here. The attorneys in this office have a combined total of 80 years experience. We'll lay out the best plan for getting results. And if for some reason, we can't help you, we'll let you know that too. Call today and schedule a free consultation. I look forward to meeting you.
