Fade out. Fade in MS of Karen Long speaking to the camera.	Aches and pains. Normal part of life? Or serious medical problem? You hope to get sound medical advice. You hope you can trust the doctor. But when the doctor makes a mistake, it can be devastating. So you'll need an attorney who knows negligence when she sees it. Hello, I am Karen Long. I've been where you are. While in college, I lost my mother after a doctor misdiagnosed her problem and rendered the wrong treatment. I know everyone makes mistakes. But when the mistake occurs in the examining room or on the operating table, it can have catastrophic results. I've spent the last 15 years holding medical professionals responsible for their negligent errors. I'd practiced medicine for 15 years prior to earning my law degree. So I DO recognize negligence when I see it.

Fade out....superimposed text on screen: "We're not just lawyers--we're counselors"	I won't lie to you, or give you false hope. But I can promise, that I and my team will work tirelessly to get you the justice you so deserve. Call us right away to schedule a consultation.
